Equisarte Online Photography Horse Show

(Fall 2021)

Congratulations to all the Winners!!!

Thank you for participating in Equisarte's Online Photography Fall Show! We had a ton of fun seeing all your photos and hope you had just as much fun taking them! We absolutely loved your animals in their costumes and you dressing up with them! This show as a whole was quite strong. We would like to acknowledge how much improvement we continue to see! Lighting was an important aspect of this show. We noticed how you used a wide range from white to black and all the greys in between in our Black & White class. In Autumn the days become shorter however these changes present new opportunities for interesting shadows, weather, and times to be out with our cameras. Clarity and focus on the main subjects were improved in this show! The background, which is an essential part of photography, was considered more to help tell your stories.

Photography is all about slowing down to take a look- there is beauty in the simplest of things and we appreciated seeing the beauty you found. We noticed the time it took to take some of your shots! To get a good shot a photographer may need to plan ahead and set it up, take multiple photos, or they may notice something beautiful and have their camera handy at the right time. We saw a lot of great ideas- new techniques that showed risk taking and it was wonderful to see a variety of these techniques implemented! We would also like to give a shout out to the Junior Division with vast improvements in clarity, lighting, and storytelling!

With so many images submitted we chose to split many classes. When judging we chose the best or stronger of the two photos submitted per category- which was no easy task! We also added a Best of Class category for those classes with large amounts of entries! Best of Class winners will get a ribbon similar to 1st-6th place winners. Ribbons will begin to be mailed out ASAP. Congratulations again!

Best in Show

“Scratch the Itch” by Kelly Alley

Prize-$30.00 Amazon gift card

Have you ever had an itch that you just had to scratch? We’ve all seen our animals move in a silly manner to scratch themselves and this photographer did a wonderful job capturing one of those silly things horses do! The unique imagery and composition of this photo captures the viewer's attention. The lighting is creative and dramatic. It looks like it was taken late in the day however, it has a nice range of blacks, whites, and greys. Our eyes are led around the image on interesting lines back towards the focal point of the horse’s head scratching that itch! The dark background contrasts well against the lightened subject allowing the subject to become the focus of our attention.

Reserve Best in Show

“Love” by Lorelei Colletti

Prize-$25.00 Amazon Gift Card

The composition of this image is lovely with gorgeous warm Autumn colors and creative lighting! The girls and horse have a happy expression on their faces and the subject is in perfect exposure which is no easy task with difficult lighting conditions during this time of day! It is difficult to pull off getting these shadows on the subject without getting the shadows too harsh nor the background bleaching out to become too light. The subject is in focus and telling the story and the background is less pronounced but helping to tell the story. The photographer did an excellent job using the Rule of Thirds and planning out their image!

Honorable Mention

“Artist’s Canvas” by Colleen Colletti

Prize-$20.00 Amazon Gift Card

What a beautiful unique scene! The photographer was able to capture the shadowed patterns of maple leaves on her horse! The maple leaves on the left of the image lead your eyes to the right where the leaf patterns and warm colors are repeated throughout the entire image. The subject is in focus and the photographer did an excellent job using depth of field, light, and color.

People’s Choice Award

“Autumn Besties” by Jessica Watts

Prize- $15.00 Amazon Gift Card
